

Jean-Louis AMICE joins Louvre Hotels Group as Chief Human Resources Officer

Jean-Louis Amice joins the Executive Committee of Louvre Hotels Group as Chief Human Resources Officer as of February 19, 2024. Directly attached with Federico J. González, CEO of Louvre Hotels Group, he will be responsible for leading the Group's Human Resources strategy.

At Louvre Hotels Group, Europe's 2nd largest hotel group and a subsidiary of Jin Jiang International, the world's 2nd largest hotel group, Jean-Louis Amice's main mission will be to lead the company's HR strategy in the context of its five-year strategic plan.

Jean-Louis has a vast background in Human Resources, honed through his numerous professional experiences in different sectors.

He began his career at L'Oréal where he worked in different positions in several of the company's divisions for nine years. He then joined Adagio where he helped build a new corporate vision before joining the start-up Oodrive. For four years he was the Chief Human Resources Officer at Nexity.

Jean-Louis holds a diploma from Sciences Po Paris.

« I wish Jean-Louis great success in his new position. With his solid experience, I am certain he will be successful in shaping the Group's Human Resources strategy as well as leading the team in building their strategic plan » stated Federico J. González, CEO of Louvre Hotels Group.
